

Georgianna Donadio MSc, DC, PhD to Keynote at the Massachusetts Nurses Association's Second Annual Clinical Nursing Conference

April 24, 2007, Wellesley, MA – The National Institute of Whole Health (www.niwh.org), pioneers of Whole Health Education® and Whole Person Care, today announced the organizations founder and director, Georgianna Donadio MSc, DC, PhD, has been selected by the Massachusetts Nurses Association (www.massnurses.org), the state's largest union and professional association of registered nurses and health professionals, to be the closing keynote speaker at their second annual Clinical Nursing Conference.

Through her keynote speech, Donadio will address How to Minimize Stress. In addition, she will lead a breakout session on the Psychophysiology of Menopause. Both presentations will occur as part of MNA's Second Annual Clinical Nursing Conference on May 18, 2007 at the DCU Center in Worcester, MA, a full day clinical program that is designed to update registered nurses on a variety of current clinical topics and relevant issues pertinent to today's nursing practice.

NIWH has, for the past 30 years, provided evidence-based, integrative whole health education, delivered in a relationship-centered, whole person focused curriculums for health and medical professionals who desire to provide better patient care. This approach integrates the most current medical research with a natural outlook on healing and the wisdom of various spiritual teachings and, all of which are grounded in integrity and compassion. NIWH is an Accredited Provider of Continuing Professional Education through the Commission on Dietetic Registration of the American Dietetics Association; an approved provider of Education and Training thru the U.S. Veterans Administration, approved by the Department of Higher Education; the National Academy of Sports Medicine; endorsed by the American Holistic Nurses Association; and approved to provide Continuing Professional education by several other national credentialing associations for nurses, social workers, health educators, acupuncturists, and licensed nutrition professionals.

# #

About the National Institute of Whole Health

Founded in 1977 and headquartered in Wellesley, MA, the National Institute of Whole Health (NIWH) offers the most established and credentialed integrative whole health certification programs in the US. NIWH's offerings include a Norman Cousins Award nominated Best Practice model – the Whole Health Education? certification program, a Whole Health Educator? program for Nurses, endorsed by the American Holistic Nurses Association, a Nutrition Educator certification program and a Whole Health Coaching certification program which can be completed in-person or via DVD distance learning. Recognized nationally as the pioneers of Whole Health Education®, the school has instructed thousands of students with varying occupations from all over the U.S., and now offers DVD distance learning with students located on five continents. For more information, visit www.niwh.org or call (888) 354-HEAL (4325).

Press Contact: Carol Arnold, Arnold Communications, (877) 718-4604 x2, carol@arnoldcomm.com.